Signs of Safety: Awareness for Multi-Agency Staff

‘Signs of Safety’ is being adopted by Kent County Council’s Early Help and Preventative Services and Specialist Children’s Services as the overarching practice framework for all its work with children, young people and their families. It is a purposeful and collaborative way of working with families to secure the best outcomes for children and young people.

By the end of this course participants will be able to:

- Introduce the concept of ‘Signs of Safety; to multi-agency staff working with children and young people
- Understand how ‘Signs of Safety’ is being used in Child Protection Conferences
- Raise staff awareness as to what will be required from them at Child Protection Conference
