

KMTSN

Kent & Medway
Teaching Schools'
Network

National College for Teaching & Leadership

Aspiring Heads Programme

(Primary, Secondary & Special)

When: April 2015 - October 2015

Where: 2 Assessment Days led by the Kaizen Teaching School Alliance at Weald of Kent in Tonbridge, shadow experience at mentor's school & placement at school in your identified context*
*(ideally a contrast to current setting)

Who: Aspiring Headteachers ready for Headship in next 12-18 months.

How: If you wish to be considered for this experience please email John Spavins (spavins@wealdgs.org) by Thursday April 30th. We will require details of your name, school and supporting Headteacher.

What: We are seeking to work with Aspiring Headteachers. We offer a personalised, bespoke opportunity to enable you to secure a Headship. The programme includes:

- Access to a mentor-coach
- Exposure to a full leadership recruitment experience (including mentoring & coaching support to forensically analyse & hone your performance)
- The opportunity to shadow your mentor in their school
- Bespoke workshop to enhance your experience & address any gaps
- Short placement in your identified context
- Assistance moving from action plan to securing your first Headship.

The KMTSN is pleased, via the NCTL, to be able to subsidise 10 places on this course, meaning that the cost to your school is just £100 per delegate.