

The annual KM Charity Forum is a celebration of best practice in schools

Helping schools to deliver passion and performance

The KM Charity Forum is a free annual information day packed with workshops to help school staff and governors share best practice in delivering initiatives focused on literacy, road safety, green travel, health and wellbeing and Pupil Voice.

You can choose from a range of workshop sessions during the morning in the delightful surroundings of the Mercure Great Danes Hotel, Maidstone.

This free event will include major press announcements for the price that resources will be sold at for Buster's Book Club – the KM and council initiative that is causing a stir in the county having achieved two million minutes of reading last academic year. Be first to hear the news of how celebrities Phil Gallagher – Mister Maker from CBeebies – and Cheryl Baker of Bucks Fizz fame will be supporting KM Charity Team walk to school, road safety and literacy initiatives this academic year.

Join us for coffee and networking with 100+ representatives of Kent schools from 8.30am. Workshop session run until 1pm.

When: Monday, October 3, 2016

Workshop sessions include:

Walk to School Master Class - Find out how school staff can become a Green Champion and how your staff can tap into Pupil Voice to encourage children to drive the green travel message; how to stage a road safety awareness week and tackle congestion at the school gates.

Buster's Book Club - Join the focus group to talk through the detail of the highly successful Buster's Book Club scheme that encourages home reading. Help suggest tweaks to the next version of the scheme or learn about it if you are new to the system. Buster's Book Club is causing a sensation in the county with schools achieving two million minutes of reading last year.

Great trips - Leeds Castle and Wildwood will detail the educational support and resources available to schools. See their educational materials first hand and talk to education staff to help you plan your next school trip.

Top honours - Learn how to earn your school a Green Travel Mark or the Literacy Mark. Discover how pupils can earn the coveted status of Green Champions or Literacy Stars.
