

Developing Enterprise & Innovation across the school Bespoke Teacher Training

Delivered in partnership with Young Chamber, this two-tiered project offers free training and mentoring for a Secondary School member of staff. The training will be open to 25 teachers, and aim to:-

- Provide schools with start-up resources for the practical delivery of the project in the classroom,
- Setup of "start-up businesses" in the school environment,
- Help to embed enterprise across the school curriculum,
- Provide the opportunity for the teachers and students to work with industry experts,
- Develop student entrepreneurial aspirations,
- Give both the teacher and students access to current labour market information through the industry mentor.

Outline of the project:

1. A half day training session for the teacher
2. School to set up enterprise projects.
3. Showcase event by participating schools, to be held in Spring 2018
