

Supporting the Mental Health of
Children and Young People in your School Community

Kooth's April Newsletter for Professionals

Exams are looming large, and pressure is mounting for both you and your students/young people. We're here to provide support, so please do reach out to your local Engagement Lead who can arm you with a raft of Managing Exam Stress resources, providing tips and guidance on how to manage anxiety and help build young people's mental resilience.

If Safeguarding Leads, Pastoral Staff, Headteachers or Mental Health First Aiders would like to share details about managing exam stress to your wider school community, we have social media and digital content available for you to use here.

Some staff and students will also be navigating Ramadan and to provide more specific support for this period, we've shared a fantastic resource created by Graffiqi that provides five tips for looking after yourself this Ramadan. #Not Alone Muslim

But that's not all - so, read on to see what's on offer in our April Newsletter!

We are the largest provider to the NHS for digital mental health services and the largest contributor to the MHSDS. Our youth and adolescent service is available to over 62% of all children and young people in the UK. Our adult service is available in 20+ regions across the UK. Alongside this, we deliver pioneering research and work to establish the evidence base for Kooth to contribute to best practice in digital mental health innovation - this is really important to us. We have innovated in developing bespoke clinically-validated measures around peer to peer interaction and our single session therapeutic model.
